

ENCOUNTER to the plasmodium falciparum malaria with...

Quinine Sulphate

B.P. 300 mg Tablets

300
mg

NAFDAC REG. NO.: A4-9045

Indications:

- Quinine Sulphate tablets are indicated mainly in the resistant strains of plasmodium falciparum malaria.
- Indicated as muscle relaxant in myotonia congenita & myotonic contraction as well as nocturnal muscle cramps.
- Secondary indication is its use in the diagnostic test for myasthenia gravis.

Presentation:
10 Blister of 10 Tablets

Dosage:

Adults: 300 mg to 600 mg given at night for nocturnal cramp's treatment is discontinued after several cramp-free nights. OR As prescribed by the Physician.

- ✦ For the treatment of falciparum malaria a course usually lasts 7 days.
- ✦ Children: 10 mg per kg body weight every 8 hours for 7 days

1, Olabisi Street, 4th floor,
Mende, Marrayland Lagos, Nigeria.
E.mail: savocentpharma@gmail.com

Back in Action with

